

Client Policies: Sue Hannibal and Guided Healing and Associates LLC

Please sign and return along with your consent form:

Intuitive assessments are the result of spiritually and energetically discerned information that is sometimes metaphorical and is therefore subject to interpretation. Accuracy is not guaranteed. Rarely, there are people I cannot read. In that case, I will refund your money and end the session. Payment for all sessions are required in advance.

There is no guarantee or warranty for my work and refunds for completed assessments and sessions will NOT be issued for any reason. In the case of credit card payments or Paypal, signer agrees to not initiate any chargebacks. If a chargeback is initiated, signer agrees to pay all legal costs to recover session fees.

Sue Hannibal is not a physician, psychologist or other licensed mental health professional and is not representing herself as such. Services provided by Sue Hannibal and Guided Healing and Associates, LLC are not intended to substitute for care by your physician or licensed mental health clinician. The undersigned agrees to obey instructions given by a physician and to continue taking prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by a doctor. A professional license is not required for intuitive assessments, energy healing, coaching or spiritual guidance in the State of California.

Guided Healing and Associates LLC assumes no responsibility for any adverse reactions to assessments or facilitated energy healing/coaching or spiritual guidance. Client agrees to assume all risk and to hold harmless Sue Hannibal and Guided Healing LLC from any and all claims.

CANCELLATION FEE POLICY: Cancellations require 24-hour notice by phone, NOT email or text. If a cancellation is not received 24 hours prior to your appointment time, 50% of your session fee will be charged.
